Who is, Mr. Brownie

John Brown, an eccentric gentleman, decided to give up everything and dedicate himself to his passion: baking.

He put love, care and time into all kinds of cakes, but his specialty was chocolate brownies.

They were so delicious that his fame grew to the point where he began to be known as Mr. Brownie.

He continues to bake them daily out of a workshop in an unknown location so that all of us can enjoy his unique and delicious brownies.

The latest rumor is that he is married to Mrs. Muffin ...
But that's another story.
